ters ahead of Charlie Tannehill, Army's middle distance star.

Eddie Alvarez of the Army won the Hawaiian championship platform diving. He showed plenty of class and there was no doubt as to his superiority over the other competitors. Art Rutherford, unattached, was second and Gerywacz of the Army third.

This was the second diving title Alvarez had won, he having annexed first honors in the 3-meter board event four weeks ago in the first meet of the championship compet.

The Outrigger team of Jean Pope, Gladys Slaght, Betty Stevenson and Olga Clarke won by a tank length from the 40 and 8 girls in the 800-meter freestyle Hawaiian championship relay for women. The time was 13 minutes 14 4/5 seconds.

T. POWELL, seeded No. 2, Hawaiian Department Singles Tennis Tournament, encountered difficulties in the quarter-final match against Corporal Howard, Luke Field. Howard found his drives insufficient against the deadly accuracy and steadiness of Lt. Powell's ambidextrous chop dropping the first set, 6-2.

Finding speed inadequate, Howard employed an easy drive to out-steady and outplay the Schofield officer in a grueling deuced set, which ended in his favor, 9-7. Employing the same methods he forged ahead to lead, 5-4, in the deciding set at which time Lt. Powell tightened up to win, 7-5.

Although there is no indication in the score Major Hills had no little difficulty in disposing of Lt. Ankenbrandt, a newly arrived officer at Schofield Barracks. Playing a counterpart of the Major's game, the Schofield officer was unable to cope with the army champion's steadiness and accuracy.

Each point was hard fought and many of the games were deuced. Long rallies were prevalent throughout the match. The ability to take advantage of his opportunities and a deadly backhand resulted into a final score of 6-0, 6-1, in the Major's favor.

Court strategy, steadiness and accurate placements reigned supreme. Lt. Cooper, Fort Ruger, employing these methods defeated Sgt. Smith, Wheeler Field, 6-3, 6-3.

Corporal Rogers, playing the same brand of tennis that enabled him to reach the finals in the Sector Tournament, easily defeated Lt. Stunkard, 6-1, 6-2.

The finals will be played Sunday afternoon at 2:15 at Fort Kamehameha courts.
