JUDGING by the way things are sizing up, no less than 150 entries will be received for the first of a series of Hawaiian Indoor swimming championship meets slated to be held March 1 in the University of Hawaii tank.

The swim-fests will be held under the sponsorship of the University of Hawaii. As already announced, entries for the initial meet will close February 28.

Much interest is being evinced in the meet by the various swimming clubs and organizations of the city and each of them has over a score of natators working out every day in preparation for the initial test of the season.

EVENTS FOR WOMEN

The meet will not be confined to men only. There will also be events for women, and the Outrigger Canoe club will enter a strong team with Olga Clarke, Mrs. Hooper and Gladys Slight as the mainstays.

It was reported from reliable sources that the Hui Makani may enter four or five swimmers in the meet. However, the club will not en-
