

ALOHAS, OUTRIGGERS WIN OPENING GAMES OF VOLLEYBALL LOOP

Palamas Lose to Amateurs, 15-10, 8-15, 15-10 in Pal
Gymnasium—Fine Matches Held—Citywiders Lose, 15-13, 3-15, 15-13

IN the opening games of the Senior A.A.U. volleyball league last night in the Palama Settlement gymnasium, the Aloha Amateurs defeated the Palamas, 15-10, 8-15, 15-10, and the Outrigger Canoe Club took the measure of the Citywide A.A., 15-13, 3-15, 15-13.

Both games were hard fought and featured with fine feeding, passing, and slamming. The Alohas played like the champions that they are. They won the title last year.

The Alohas were given a hard battle by the Palamas, who displayed great form. In the first set, they barely managed to emerge on top, the score being 15-10. Coming back with a vengeance in the second set, the Pals turned them back, 15-8.

The third and deciding set was a thriller in every sense of the word. However finally after a bitter skirmish, the champions managed to squeeze through the victor. The score for the third set was 15-10.

Braun and Nobriga played well for the Alohas as did Louis Morton and Sua for the Pals.

This game was characterized by hard slamming on the part of both teams.

In another hard fought match, the Outriggers trimmed the Citywiders. The latter put up a surprising strong front and threatened to upset the beach clubbers, winning the second set handily, 15-3.

Outrigger won the first and third sets at 15-13.

Janda and Hansen played bang up ball for Outrigger. Ross and Ascuncion played well for the Citywide team.

Thursday evening two more matches will be played at the Central Y with the University of Hawaii meeting the Vagabonds at 7:30 and the Palamas battling the Outriggers at 8:15.
