

Upset Registered In Senior A.A.U. Volleyball Loop

The biggest upset of the A. A. U. senior volleyball series was registered last night at the Central Y gymnasium when the Outrigger team won two games out of three from the Aloha Amateurs.

The Alohas had not lost a game this season. They started out by scoring a 15-9 win over the Outriggers in the first game last night, but the Outriggers rallied in the second game and finally captured it, 17-15. After winning the second game the Outrigger team continued to click and scored a 15-7 win in the third game to take the match.

This victory throws the Aloha Amateurs, the Outriggers and the Vagabonds into a tie for the league leadership.

In the other match the University of Hawaii won from the Citywide in straight games, 15-13 and 15-6.
