

Senior Volley League Ends Up In Triple Tie

The Senior A. A. U. Volleyball league race ended up in a triple tie last night when the Vagabonds from the Central Y defeated the Palamas, 16-18, 15-13 and 15-8, at the Palama gymnasium.

At the same time, the Aloha Amateurs, defending champions, walloped the Citywidiers, 15-11 and 15-12.

The results leave the Alohas, Vagabonds and Outrigger Canoe club deadlocked for the top with three wins and a setback each. In the drawings for the playoff of the title last night, the Vagabonds were paired with the Outriggers for the first game this Thursday at the Central Y court. The winner will meet the Alohas for the title on Monday at the Palama gymnasium.

As a preliminary game to the Vagabond-Outrigger tussle, the Palamas and Citywidiers clash at 7:30 p. m. Thursday.
