

Three-Way Tie Exists in Senior Volley League

With the Aloha Amateurs defeating the Citywide in two straight games and the Vagabonds taking the measure of Palama in two out of three games last night at Palama, the A.A.U. volleyball league was thrown into a three-day deadlock with the Outrigger as the third team involved in the tie.

The Amateurs took Citywide, 15 to 11, 15 to 12, while the Vagabonds came from behind to bump the Pals, 15-18, 15-13 and 15-8.

The Vagabonds and the Outriggers will meet in the first game of the championship play-off Thursday night at Central Y.
