

Ocean Swim Is Planned Nov. 26th

Plans for the third annual open water swimming meet to be staged Thanksgiving Day at the Outrigger club are progressing well, according to Theodore Searle, graduate manager of the University of Hawaii, which is sponsoring the event.

Two large trophies to be awarded the mens' and womens' teams with the highest score will be presented by the Royal Hawaiian hotel. Medals for individual and team victories will be awarded by the Hawaiian AAU, which is officially sanctioning the meet.

Teams already entered in the group events include the University of Hawaii swimming team, Hui Makani, 40 and 8, Army, Nuuanu YMCA and the Outrigger club.

Members of the university team are Adolph Desha, Wilbur Crow, Warren Haynes, Ben Chollar, Bernard Koseki and Kiyoshi Kuramoto. In the individual events more than 50 entries have been made to date.

Entries for the meet will close at 4 p. m. November 26, according to Searle.
