

Natators Are Training For Waikiki Swim

Open Water Compet Slated For Thanksgiving Day

WITH the Waikiki Open Water swims a little more than a week away, the natators of the Hui Makani, Outrigger, 40 and 8, Citywide, University of Hawaii, Army, Palama, Nuuanu Y, and other organizations are making their final training drive.

The compet, which will be held on the morning of Thanksgiving Day for both men and women, will be sponsored by the Associated Students of the University of Hawaii, with "Pump" Searle, graduate manager and swimming coach, in charge.

The Hui Makani, the club that recently won the Hawaiian A.A.U. Outdoor swimming championships, is making a particularly strong drive to win the forthcoming event. Last Sunday Coach Harvey Chilton had his men, who are still in tip top condition as a result of their participation in the A.A.U. meet, swim over the course, as did the Outrigger swimmers with George "Dad" Center, veteran mentor, supervising activities.

The University natators were also out there working out with the Outrigger stars.

Thrown open to all competitors for the first time since the inauguration of the event a number

(Continued on Page 9)