Outrigger Canoe club with only members competing. He won the last time last year. In the forthcoming race he will encounter tough opposition at the hands of the Hui Makani stars, Maurice Furusho, Noburo Hamada and Diamond Martin, all of whom are well known for their ability.

Besides them J. Rodrigues, M. Hirata and J. Calosope of the Citywide A. A., and Henry Sakamoto of the 40 and 8 club will match strokes.

Olga Clarke, Mildred Slaght Hooper, Gladys Slaght of the Outrigger; Rachael Howland of the University of Hawaii, and Margaret Morse, unattached, will vie for honors in the women's open, which will be over a half mile course, starting at the Public Baths.

The field competing in the novice race for men, from Canoe Surf to the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, will stage a torrid race, according to indications. Forty-six swimmers are registered for the event.

Clubs which will be represented in the races are the University of Hawaii, Hui Makani, Outrigger Canoe Club, Citywide A. A., 40 and 8, Army, Palama Settlement and the Nuuanu Y. There are also several unattached swimmers.
