

Waikiki Open Water Swims This Morning

Races to Finish in Front Of Royal Hawaiian Hotel

The leading local swimmers will compete this morning in the Waikiki Open water swims, sponsored by the University of Hawaii. The finish of every race will be in front of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, donor of team championship trophies for men and women.

In both divisions there will be races in three classes, open, junior, and novice. The races will start at different points, the longest compet being the men's open which will start in the Castle Surfs outside of Elks club, and the distance of which is about a mile and a quarter.

All competitors will assemble at 8:30 at the Outrigger Canoe club. They will be taken out in boats to the starting points immediately thereafter so that the races can get under way at 9 o'clock. The

(Continued on Page 13)