grudge against one or two officials of the A.A.U.

"We would like very much to have Harvey Chilton's boys enter the meet, but, of course, it's up to them," Searle said regretfully yesterday in commenting on their decision.

The University of Hawaii received the sanction of the local A.A.U. to stage the 1935 Indoor championships late last year. It also sponsored the compet in 1934.

Members of the 40 and 8 club, Nuuanu Y, Citywide A.A., Palama A.C. and the Outrigger Canoe club will start intensive training in preparation for the meet within the next few days.
