

CANOE SAILING RACE IS WON BY PUA ALII

Duke Kahanamoku's boat, Pua Alii, surfed into Waikiki beach the winner of the first of a series of three sailing canoe races Sunday.

The events are sponsored by L. S. Shields, local business man and a prominent member of the Outrigger Canoe club. In the initial competition, nine boats competed over a course which pointed out to sea and back.

The next race will be held Sunday with the third on March 17. The championship will be determined on the point system.

The whole beach colony, including many tourists, witnessed Sunday's race.

Crews and other details follow:

Canoe Pua Alii—Canoe captain, Commodore Tom Bragg; skipper, Duke Kahanamoku, Walter Macfarlane, J. D. Kaupiko Jr., Bill Hollinger. Time, 56 minutes net. Handicap, 1:20, first place.

Center's sailor: Commodore Bob Topping; skipper, Sally Hale; crew, Dick Daniels, Parana Dave. Time, 1:04. Handicap, 12:20, second place.

Canoe Princess: Commodore, Barbee; skipper, Dad Center; crew, Miss Shields, Tommy Mullahey, Edric Cooke. Time, 1:04 scratch, third place.

Canoe U're Telling Me: Commodore, Jack Briscoe; skippered by J. D. Kaupiko Sr.; crew, Billy Mehrtens, Splash Lyons. Time, 1:17. Handicap, 14:04, fourth place.