

CROWN SEVEN CHAMPIONS IN THIRD SPLASH

Doble of Army Wins Sizzling 300 Medley; Slight Defends Title

By JAMES CAREY

The University of Hawaii assumed an imposing lead of 20 points over its nearest rival, the 40 & 8 club, as a result of the third meet of the Hawaiian AAU indoor swimming championships held last night at the university pool.

A small crowd braved driving wind and constant showers from the Manoa valley to witness the events.

The seven Hawaiian championships, annexed during the course of the meet, follow:

Eddie Nakamura, 40 and 8, 500 yard freestyle, men junior; B. Chang, 40 and 8, 100 yard freestyle, women junior; Elwin Doble, Army, 300 yard medley individual, men open; Laurel Ensminger, Roosevelt, 100 yard breaststroke, women junior; C. DuBois, University, 100 yard freestyle, men junior; Mildred Slight, Outrigger Canoe club, 300 yard medley individual, women open; University of Hawaii team (N. Aluli, A. Desha and W. Craw), 300 yard medley relay, men open.

Most Interesting Race

Without doubt the most interesting race of the evening was the 300 yard medley individual men's open. Right from the start it developed into a three way fight between Elwin Doble, William Waidlich, both of the Army, and Adolph Desha of the university.

At the outset of the breaststroke, Waidlich commanded a lead of about a yard or two. Desha came to the fore with powerful two-arm pulls in the backstroke stage of the grind, although all three swimmers were never separated from one another by any great extent.

Doble and Waidlich were neck and neck in the backstroke. Desha maintained his lead in the freestyle part of the race until the very last 25 yards. Here Doble passed him with powerful finishing strokes and Waidlich put on a similar spurt for the finish. Doble won the race by two yards, Waidlich nosing out Desha for second place by about a
