

OPENING TILTS LISTED MAY 6 AT CENTRAL Y

Five Powerful Clubs To Vie For Laurels; Alohas To Defend Title

The Senior AAU Volleyball league schedule was announced today. On May 6 the league will get under way with a doubleheader.

In the first game the Palama team will meet the Outrigger Canoe club. In the second fray the Vagabonds will play the University of Hawaii team. The first game will start at 7:30 and the second 10 minutes after the first is completed.

The Aloha Amateurs, champions the past three seasons, drew a bye and will not swing into action until May 10 when they tackle the Vagabonds.

The above five teams comprise the 1935 circuit, which is being operated by Manuel M. Ferreira, chairman of the local AAU volleyball committee.

Teams Are Even

From all reports, the squads are evenly matched so that some sizzling hot battles and bristling action should be witnessed.

Teams will play one round and if they are evenly matched a second round will be played. Games will be played as per rules in the Spalding volleyball rule book.

The volleyball committee is composed of Ferreira, chairman; Earl Kraft, Outrigger; Sun Leong, University; Sam Harris, Vagabonds; Wilder Parker, Palama. Players lists together with the entrance fee of $5 have to be in by April 30.

A charge of 10 cents per game will be levied to defray expenses of the league.

The following have been selected as officials for the season: "Red" Kauahi, Martin Phillips and Tai Loy Ho. The first round schedule follows:

May 6—Palama vs. Outrigger and Vagabonds vs. University of Hawaii.

May 10—Vagabonds vs. Aloha Amateurs and University of Hawaii vs. Outrigger.

May 13.—University of Hawaii vs. Palama and Aloha Amateurs vs. Outrigger.

May 17—Outrigger vs. Vagabonds and Aloha Amateurs vs. Palama.

May 20—Aloha Amateurs vs. University of Hawaii and Palama vs. Vagabonds.

Second round will be played, probably without University of Hawaii, if there is sufficient interest.
