

OUTRIGGER AND DEANS BEATEN IN HOT TILTS

Capacity Crowd Takes In Exciting Senior AAU Slam Ball Battles

Palama beat Outrigger.
Vagabonds beat U. of Hawaii.

Before a capacity crowd of more than 250 spectators, the 1935 Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball league opened last evening at the Central Y courts.

In a hummer, the Palamas managed to beat the strong Outrigger Canoe sextet, 17-19, 15-9 and 15-12, in the season's opener. The second tussle between the Vagabonds from the Central Y and University of Hawaii also traveled three sets before the Vags won out, 15-7, 15-15 and 15-6.

All the teams displayed first class ability and things should be hot during the remainder of the games.

This Friday evening, the Vagabonds meet the Aloha Amateurs, champions the past three seasons, and the University of Hawaii plays the Outrigger Canoe club.

Were Stars

In the matches last evening, Louis Morton, Philip Tuck Chong and Robert Naauao stood out for Palama. Tom Singlehurst and Van Orden starred for Outrigger.

Leading the Vagabond attack were Sam Harris and Sonny Lee. John Murray and Tommy Kaulukukui showed to advantage for the Deans.

The lineups were:

Outrigger—Jordan, Janda, Van Orden, Kraft, Logan and Singlehurst.

Palama—R. Naauao, Fong, F. Wong, P. T. Chong, Morton, B. Nam. Alternate—D. Puuloa.

University of Hawaii—R. Won, S. Leong, E. Loo, A. Kai, T. Kaulukukui and Murray.

Vagabonds—R. Mau, A. Chock, S. Lee, W. Maket, E. Shea, Sam Harris. Alternates—J. Woodd and E. Mori.

The Palama-Outrigger match required an hour and half to play.
