

ALOHAS DEFEAT PALAMA SEXTET IN 'BIG GAME'

Defending Champions Click Like Million Dollar Machine; Vags Win

Vagabonds beat Outriggers.
Alohas beat Palamas.

The biggest crowd of the 1935 season jammed the Central Y hall to overflowing last evening to see the crack Aloha Amateurs, defending champions, repulse the powerful Palama sextet in impressive fashion, winning in straight sets, 15-7 and 15-12.

The game makes Manuel M. Ferreira's Amateurs the only undefeated team to date and the champions of the first round.

In the appetizer, the Vagabonds bumped off the Outrigger Canoe club, 15-13, 15-17 and 15-4.

The Aloha-Palama tussle required an hour and 50 minutes to play in spite of the fact it only traveled two sets.

Torrid Battle

The fine playing of both squads in holding onto sideouts kept the fans in suspense throughout. The fray was red hot throughout.

For the Alohas, J. Keliikipi, J. Nobrega and Brede Karratti did heroic work. Philip Tuck Chong and Louis Morton shone for Palama.

Officials of the games were: Tai Loy Ho, referee; B. Young, umpire; Meadows and R. Hong, linesmen, and Bill Meinecke, scorer.

Lineups were:

Aloha Amateurs—B. Karratti, A. Braun, J. Nobrega, J. Keliikipi, H. Aiwohi and A. Cordeiro.

Palamas—P. T. Chong, L. Morton, D. Puuloo, R. Naauao, H. Fong and Joe Wong.

Outriggers—Maertens, Janda, Van Orden, Kraft, Logan and Singlehurst.

Vagabonds—R. Mau, A. Chock, S. Lee, W. Maket, E. Shea and S. Harris.

Next Tuesday evening, the University of Hawaii meets Aloha Amateurs at 7:30 and Vagabonds play Palamas in the nightcap. The games end the first series.