

Enlisted Men Of The Fleet Enjoy Swimming Party

The Theodore Roosevelt auxiliary, United Spanish War Veterans, gave a swimming party to about 200 enlisted men of the fleet Tuesday afternoon at the Outrigger Canoe club. After enjoying a swim in the surf, the men were entertained at the club house with several hulas performed by daughters of members of the auxiliary. The large tables on which refreshments were served were attractively decorated with tropical flowers.

The committees were composed of the following: Decorations and entertainment, Mrs. Fred W. Wolf, Irene and Dorothea Wolf; refreshments, Mrs. Angie Frazier, Mrs. Emma Richey, Mrs. Gladys Van Dyke, Mrs. Helen Dau, Mrs. Nanita Nugent, Mrs. Jennie Shepard, Mrs. Edith Boyd; reception committee, Mrs. Rose Benford, Mrs. Ethel Tassock, Mrs. Florida Burns, Mrs. Myrtle Stephenson, Miss Margaret Burns, Mrs. Doris Stevens, Mrs. Lilian Wilkinson, Mrs. R. E. Eastman, Mrs. Florida Burns, Mrs. Minnie Kirsten.

Mrs. Jorgen Jorgensen, general chairman of the committee, announced that the men of the camp assisted financially in making the party a success.

The party started at 2 p. m. and lasted until sundown.
