

ROUND TWO OF VOLLEY LOOP OPENS TONIGHT

After a lapse of two weeks, Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball competition will be resumed.

This evening, starting at 7:30, the second round of the hotly contested league gets underway with a snappy doubleheader.

The first tussle brings the powerful Palama sextet against the equally strong Outrigger Canoe club. The Vagabonds tackle the newly admitted Citywide slammers in the nightcap.

The Citywidens are replacing the University of Hawaii which withdrew at the end of the initial series. The team is reported to be a real title contender. Manager Pacheco has a galaxy of stars, including Sam Hart, Bert Loughmiller and "Red" Kaonohi.

The Aloha Amateurs, first round winners and defending champions, will be idle.

Martel M. Ferreira, in charge of eral years ago, swaps holds with George (Wildcat) Pete in the special. Both Kimball and Fisher arrived on the Malolo last Thursday.

The opener brings Augie Ornelas against Marion Freitas.

BALL PLAYERS HURT DURING BASEBALL GAME

(Special Star-Bulletin Wirefess)
WAILUKU, Maui, June 3.—Guichi Hamada and Anthony Garcia were injured when they collided while attempting to catch a ball during the Puuene-Wailuku baseball game here yesterday.

Neither was seriously hurt and they will be discharged from the hospital Tuesday. Hamada received a cut over his right eye, but the eye was not injured.

the league, announced that games of the second round will be played on Monday and Friday night at the Central Y hall. Tilts of the initial series were held Tuesday and Friday nights. The usual 10 cents admission will be charged.