

ALOHA AMATEUR AND OUTRIGGER WIN SLAMFESTS

Leadership To Be Decided Monday When Alohas Play Citywiders

Battling for the leadership of the second round in the 1935 Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball tournament at the Central Y, the title defending Aloha Amateurs tackle the powerful Citywide outfit at 8:30 p. m. Monday in the feature of a snappy doubleheader.

Both the Alohas and Citywiders are undefeated to date and a hum-dinger should result.

The appetizer at 7:30 p. m. brings the Palamas against the Vagabonds.

Last evening two rousing matches were held. The Outriggers won from the Vagabonds after three hectic sets, 15-8, 6-15 and 15-13, while the Aloha Amateurs grabbed the decision from Palama, 15-10 and 15-8.

Outstanding in the Outrigger victory were Fred Logan, E. Kraft and W. Bowman. Sam Harris, Bill Maket and S. Lee showed to advantage for the losers.

Stand Out Players

J. Nobrega, A. Braun and J. Keliikipi were the big guns for the Alohas while J. Wong, R. Naauao and P. T. Chong stood out for Palama.

Lineups were:

Outriggers—D. Janda, W. Bowman, L. Chiswick, F. Logan, E. Kraft, H. Van Orden and K. Maertens.

Vagabonds—W. Maket, S. Lee, A. Chock, E. Apoliona, Sam Harris and E. Shea.

Aloha Amateurs—M. Cordeiro, A. Braun, J. Nobrega, J. Keliikipi, E. Akau and A. Corderiro.

Palamas—H. Fong, J. Wong, P. T. Chong, Robert Naauao, B. Nam, W. Wagner and P. Kamana.

Manuel M. Ferreira, in charge of the tournament, said that in the event a team other than the Aloha Amateurs wins the round two flag a championship series, two best of three games, will be played.