

Kona Crews Called Today

Turnout at Outrigger Club for Training

Outrigger Canoe club canoe crew aspirants will report for their first practice for the Kona races at 9:30 a.m. today when Coach "Dad" Center will meet them and assign them to crews for preliminary training.

According to gossip along the beach front, Kona will be represented by the strongest set of crews ever sent to the starting line in August and Coach Center is determined to avenge the defeat suffered last summer when Kailua crews won the regatta and virtually all the important races of the day. Although Outrigger finished second a year ago, Center has declared that the beach paddlers will go to Kona this year satisfied with nothing less than a regatta victory and a win in the senior classic as well.

Hui Nalu, powerful beach club, will start the turnout for the Kona

(Continued on Page 8, Col. 3)