

Alohas Win Volley Tilt

Citywide Defeated, 15-13,
15-8; Vagabonds Down
Pals, 15-11, 15-6

MANUEL FERREIRA'S fast stepping Aloha Amateurs defeated the Citywide A. A., 15-13, 15-8, last night at the Central Y in an AAU volleyball league match before the largest crowd of the season.

In the other game, the Vagabonds took the measure of the Palamas, 15-11, 15-6.

Next Friday the second series championship will be decided when the Alohas and the Outriggers clash in the nightcap of a doubleheader. In the event the Alohas win, they will be crowned champions for 1935, inasmuch as they have already annexed the first series title.

Should the Outriggers win, a play off will be necessary for the season's championship.

The curtain-raiser will show Palama meeting the Citywide.
