

ALOHAS NEAR VOLLEY TITLE IN SR. LEAGUE

Defeat Citywiders In Sizzling Battle Before a Record Crowd

Manuel M. Ferreira's Aloha Amateurs moved a notch closer to the 1935 championship of the Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball league last evening by defeating Citywide A. C. in straight sets at the Central Y hall.

The largest crowd of the season turned out to witness the melee. The score was 15-13 and 15-8. The game was sizzling hot while it lasted.

In the appetizer, the Vagabonds trimmed the Palamas in an upset. The score was 15-11 and 15-6.

The Amateurs, who are defending champions, are setting an impressive record in senior volleyball. So far in this year's campaign, they have dropped but one set—that to the Vagabonds in the first round.

Win Seven In Row

The league leaders are undefeated in seven games.

Stars in last evening's crucial conflict were J. Nobriga, J. Keliikipi and A. Cordeiro for the Alohas and S. Hart, D. Young and J. Kahau-naele for the Citywiders.

Sam Harris, S. Lee and Bill Maket starred for the Vagabonds in the opener while Joseph Wong, Philip Tuck Chong and H. Fong did their chores well for the losing Palamas.

The lineups were:

Vagabonds—M. Maket, S. Lee, A. Chock, R. Mau, S. Harris, E. Shea.
Palamas—P. Kamana, P. T. Chong, J. Wong, D. Puuloa, B. Nam, H. Fong and J. Alapai.

Aloha Amateurs—A. Braun, M. Cordeiro, A. Cordeiro, B. Karratti, J. Keliikipi, J. Nobriga. Citywide A. A.—S. Hart, A. Smith, S. Kaonohi, D. Young, B. Loughmiller and J. Kahaunaele.

The final games are scheduled for Friday evening.

The Aloha Amateurs must beat the Outrigger Canoe club in the nightcap to be assured of the championship. The Palama and Citywide sextets clash in the opener.
