game and after the match there was no question as to their superiority.

There was plenty of action and a large crowd turned out for the games. Van Orden, Bowman and Kraft played well for Outrigger.

In winning the championship, the Alohas established some kind of a record, winning 16 out of 17 sets played. They lost their only set of the season to the Vagabonds.

By the score of 15-6, 15-6, the City-wide A.A. defeated the Palamas in the curtain raiser.
