

Alohas Play Outriggers

Championship of Volley- ball League at Stake Monday Night

The Aloha Amateurs can win the second series title and with it the championship of the A.A.U. Volleyball league by defeating the Outrigger Canoe Club sextet Monday night in the nightcap of a doubleheader at the Central Y. The Alohas are first series champions.

On the other hand, should the Outriggers win and the Citywidens take in a great effort to combine, Lechiyama and Knudsen rallied but they were stopped after scoring victories in three games. The final set saw Biven and Forbes breeze through a 6-2 triumph.

After dropping the first set without winning a single game, Grieves and Lange made a stirring comeback for a 6-4 win in the second chapter, but that was the furthest they got, for in the next set, Bo Ming Yee and Chinn Sunn carried the honors.

This quarter-final match was well played and proved to be hard fought and spectacular throughout.

Sunn and Yee, in winning this match after a bitter struggle, showed great form. They played good, sound tennis throughout.

---

the measure of the Palamas in the curtain-raiser, a three-way tie will result, the contenders for the title being the Outriggers, Alohas and the Citywidens.