

MAY DETERMINE SENIOR VOLLEY TITLE TONIGHT

Victory For Alohas Will Settle Issue; Pals Play City-wide In Opener

The 1935 championship of the Hawaiian AAU Senior Volleyball league may be settled this evening at the Central Y hall when the Aloha Amateurs meet the Outrigger Canoe club in the nightcap.

A victory for the Alohas gives them the second round title and the gonfalon outright since they have already captured the initial series flag.

The triumph would also mark the third straight championship for the Alohas in this circuit.

In the appetizer at 7:30 o'clock, the Palamas meet the Citywidens in what should be a thriller.

The Outriggers are not expected to defeat the Amateurs but in the event an upset is registered a playoff will be necessary.

Aloha Amateurs—A. Braun, J. Kaliikipi, A. Cordeiro, M. Cordeiro, J. Nobriga, B. Karratti.

Outriggers—E. Kraft, H. Van Orden, W. Bowman, F. Logan, H. Janda and C. Chiswick.

Palamas—R. Naauao, J. Wong, H. Fong, P. T. Chong, B. Nam and D. Puuloa, Citywidens — B. Loughmiller, S. Kaonohi, S. Hart, J. Kahaunaele, D. Young and A. Smith.