

ALOHAS ANNEX FOURTH VOLLEY LEAGUE TITLE

Mow Down Outriggers In Deciding Tussle; Citywide Bumps Palama

Displaying an offensive that could not be denied, Manuel M. Ferreira's Aloha Amateurs last evening clinched their fourth straight Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball championship by smashing the Outriggers in straight sets, 15-5 and 15-9.

The deciding fray, which was held at the Central Y hall, where all battles were waged, attracted a strong turnout which saw the champions clicking like a master timepiece.

In the other offering of the evening, the Citywide slammers overwhelmed Palama, 15-6 and 15-6.

Play Brilliantly

Sharing the spotlight of the Aloha Amateurs' championship battle were J. Keliikipi, Manuel and Al Cordeiro. The Outriggers played well but were unable to match the steam put out by the champions.

Van Orden, Kraft and Bowman stood out brilliantly, however.

The games marked the end of the current season.
