

Pre-Regatta Dance To Be Held Tonight

(Continued from Page 1)

the West Coast is primed and ready for the invasion and if Honolulu is to regain her lost laurels, the crews that go up next week must be far stronger than those which contested in the eliminations two weeks ago.

Reservations are now being taken at the Inter-Island office for the special excursion of the Waialeale. It is expected that close to 200 will sign up for the steamer's jaunt.
