

Thanksgiving Day Outdoor Swims Today

---

Four Events Slated. Three
For Men and Another
For Women

WITH prospects of 70 to 80 swimmers competing for honors, the annual Thanksgiving Day outdoor distance swims will be held this morning at Waikiki. All races will end on the beach in front of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel.

Four events are slated to be held, and they will get underway at 9 o'clock. Three of them will be for men. They are the Castle swim of one and one-fourth miles, Public Bath swim of one-half mile, and Canoe Surf swim of 600 yards. The fourth event will be for women and it will be a quarter mile event from Canoe Surf.

Entries will be left open until 8:30 this morning. Searle will be at the Outrigger Canoe Club at 8 o'clock to receive last minute registrations.

Two team trophies, one for men and another for women, will be at stake. They have been put up by the Royal Hawaiian Hotel, and they will go to the winning teams.
