

ALOHAS AND OUTRIGGERS ARE VICTORS

Full House Attends Senior AAU Volleyball Games At Central Y Hall

Aloha Amateurs beat Vagabonds.
Outriggers beat U. of Hawaii.

Manuel M. Ferreira's Aloha Amateurs got off on the right foot in the defense of their three time championship of the Hawaiian AAU senior volleyball league by thumping the Central Q Vagabonds in three hectic sets at the Central Y hall last night.

The score was 15-7, 12-15 and 15-11. The game was the Alohas' first appearance for the 1935 season and they looked good in victory.

In the other attraction, the Outriggers swooped down on the University of Hawaii slammers to win easily, 15-10 and 15-12.

Another capacity house was on hand to see the action.

A. Cordeiro, B. Karratti, A. Braun and H. Aiwohi shone for the champions with their all around work. Sam Morris, A. Chock and S. Lee showed to advantage for the Vagabonds.

For the Outriggers, Tom Singlehurst and E. Kraft starred while for the Deans John Murray and E. Goo stood out.
