

Nuuanu Y Volley Ball Team Wins Businessmen Loop Title

In a bitterly-contested 3-set match, the smooth-functioning Nuuanu Y team cinched the league championship in the Invitational Business Men's volleyball league by nosing out the strong Representative Club, 13-15, 16-14, 15-8. Both teams played a good brand of volleyball.

Captain Leslie "Spud" Harrison and Carl Fardner played stellar ball for the losers, but they could not cope with those one-inch clearance net slams of Eddie Char and "Tiger" Leong. Hung Wai Ching, former track star who once set a broad jump record at the University of Hawaii, played his usual faultless game.

A constantly see-sawing score, with long rallies during which the ball was kept in the air for several minutes at a time, kept the crowd on edge. Superior team work by Nuuanu Y, with the squad "feeders" nuzzling the ball to Leong and Char at the right moments, finally settled the issue.

The Lions Club won an expected easy victory over Rotary Club in the first game of the evening.

Although one more week of play remains, the standings as listed below will be virtually unchanged.
