

Garden Islanders To Enter Two Crews In Races Here

Expectations that the all-Territory canoe regatta to be held in Honolulu harbor on Kamehameha Day will be the biggest event of its kind in modern Hawaiian history were given additional justification yesterday when it was learned that Kauai will enter a second crew in the aquatic classic which will get under way promptly at 2 p.m. June 11.

Meanwhile, following the amicable settlement of recent disagreements between Kona paddlers and the regatta committee over the shorter racing distances set for this year, it was announced that the Honaunau crew will arrive in Honolulu at 8 a.m. today aboard the Inter-Island steamer Humuula.

LEADERS TO MEET

The crew's popular leader, Julian Yates, who last year coached his paddlers to a sensational victory in the regatta at Kailua in which the Honaunauns won six out of the eight events, will confer with members of the regatta committee at the Outrigger club

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 6)