

Ancient Hawaii Lives Again Beneath Thatched Roofs of Outrigger Village

se Dudolf, Josephine Vogler.
 Page: Lona Hoy.
 Alder: William Babburn, Jr., James
 Trip, R. Wall.
 Trustees: Stanley Matteece, John
 Lindsey.

NIHAE
 Princesses: Elizabeth Lalaka, Ynez
 Mahoe, Watty Hoi, and Rosa, Lucy
 Martinson, Elean Ross.
 Alder: Herbert Rawlins, John Trip,
 John Lee.
 Outriders: Ernest Kasa, Herbert
 Sochia.

KAHOO LAWE
 Princesses: Lillian Peterson, Kalhana
 Selekua, Julia Doyle.
 Master: Joseph Geraldine Kanohui,
 Pamela Eli Matteece, Annabelle Mau-fey, Joe Lewis.
 Alder: James Hayvelton, Pat O'Sullivan, Dr. Richard Maloney, William
 Quirkiers: William Jarrett, Willie Waite.

MARSHAL AND AIDES
 Grand Marshal: John C. Lane.
 Deputy Marshals: Arthur Freitas,
 William Hall, Bruce Hopkins, William
 Ishihara, Sr.

In the evening process, Princess Capoliani will be accompanied by these aides in waiting: Mrs. Aleta Kikige,
 Mrs. Josephine Hoolani Porteus,
 Mrs. Jane Holt Thurston, Mrs. Kakuhana Adams, Miss Rachel Woods, Mrs. Arna Richardson Reis.

Group To Consider Lei Day Expansion

At a meeting of the directors of the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce yesterday, E. Alexander Anderson was appointed chairman of a special committee to study the desirability of expanding the Lei Day celebration next year.

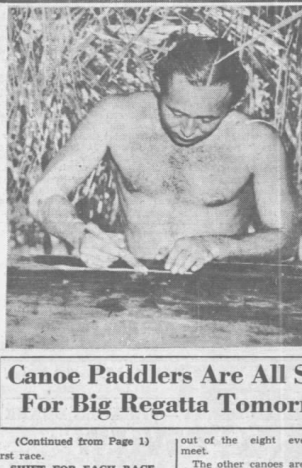

Addison E. Kirk, chamber president, appointed Anderson chairman and requested Mrs. Bernice Spitz and Mrs. May Plueger to join the committee as representatives of the Daughters of Hawaii.

Oren E. Long, superintendent of public instruction, will represent the schools.

Highway First Aid Soon To Cover U. S.

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — Red Cross First Aid, being brought to the front line of accident occurrence, the highway, is forging steadily ahead, according to Harold F. Enlow, director of first aid and life saving for the American Red Cross.

In Eastern states, Enlow said 223 highways emergency first aid stations are operating, with 1,688 being established. Midwestern

Mariposa

The following list on the Mariposa:
 Judges William C. Achi, I. B. Adams,
 Charles W. B. P. T. A. Alexander,
 Mrs. F. A. Alexander, Anthony April,
 Mrs. Anthony April,
 Mrs. Grace Balley, J. J. Baker, Mrs.
 J. Baker, L. C. Cowley, E. W. J. Baskin,
 C. N. Mrs. Lillian Neely Holah, Fred
 Vera Boyd, C. A. Bradshaw, Leslie
 French, Mrs. Leslie French, Miss An-nell Branch, E. E. Brown, Mrs. D. K.
 Jones.

Charles Castle, Royal N. Chapman,
 Mrs. Royal N. Chapman, Miss Frances
 Chapman, Master Kent S. Chapman,
 Mrs. Joyce E. Chapman, Mrs. C. King
 Brown, Mrs. Amanda R. Christ,
 Miss Dorothy Davis, Lieut. Paul S.
 Moore, Doby, Nona Dietrich, Mrs.
 John Evans, Mrs. John Evans, W. H.
 Selzer, W. H. Fering.
 Joseph E. Palmer, Mrs. Joseph E.
 Palmer, E. P. Pascoe, Mrs. H. Pascoe,
 Mrs. Opal M. Foreman, Master Thomas
 Foreman, E. L. Francis, E. Goetzinger,
 Mrs. Ada Goodie, J. H. Grubiner, Miss
 M. J. Haggabishim,
 Nola Hahn, Miss Kimiko Hayashi,
 Mrs. H. H. Hill, Mrs. M. Hill,
 E. Holland, Mrs. T. M. Holland, Paul
 Howard, Mrs. Ted Howard, Miss Doris
 Howard, Miss Virginia H. Hopkins, Ted
 Jones, Mrs. Wm. C. James, Miss Marjorie
 Jones.

Norman Kendall, Mrs. Norman Kendall, David Krasner,
 Miss Ethel Lane, Miss Viola A. Lane,
 Mrs. E. L. Lutz, Charles W. Lutz,
 Mrs. Charles W. Lutz, Mrs. Marjorie Lutz, Mrs. Frank
 Dr. O. C. Magistad, Miss Marjorie

ISLAND SPORTSMEN.—From Milolli and Kailua, from Honouanuu and Kaula, more than five hundred outrigger canoe enthusiasts have gathered in Honolulu's temporary "outrigger village" on the harborside near pier 4. There, the great sleek canoes they will race in the Kanehameha Day regatta tomorrow are housed when they aren't being driven over the harbor by stalwart arms eager for aquatic glory.

Upper left: Caesar Kamehaha and Herman K. Kallikini talk over the prospects of Kailua's several crews in tomorrow's classic regatta. Kamehaha's son, Thomas Caesar, is the captain of his club's senior six crew. Upper center: The belle of the thatched, waterfront village, 16-year-old Anna Kaelo. This is her third year as a member of the Kailua girls' crew. Upper right: John Kaupiko of Milolli pointing out just why Milolli is bound to win tomorrow. His reasons are good: he has three sons in the crews of the Kona club. Center: Alexander Aho, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Aho of 2145 S. King street, is just getting the feel of things in one of Honouanuu's big canoes against the time when he'll grow up and be a paddler too. Lower right: Puna Kimura and Lucy Whitmarsh, 18 and 17-year-old schoolgirls respectively, who are members of the Honouanuu senior six girls' crew. In spite of their youth they are both veterans since each pulled a victorious oar in last year's regatta in which Honouanuu won six of the eight scheduled events. Bottom: Local boy makes good job of repairing canoe. He is Bill Mairiens of Honolulu's Hail Nala. He carries the honorary degree of "C.D.," it was explained by Julian Yates, Honouanuu coach.—C. D. meaning Canoe Doctor. (Advertiser Photos)

Canoe Paddlers Are All Set For Big Regatta Tomorrow

(Continued from Page 1)
 out of the eight events of the meet.
 The other canoes are the prop-
 SHIP FOR EACH RACE