

Canoe Races Offer Thrills

Honaunau Crews Capture Seven Major Events

By MACK MATHEWS

History repeated itself yesterday afternoon to provide a huge cheering crowd of Kamehameha Day celebrants with what was probably the most thrilling aquatic spectacle Honolulu has ever witnessed.

The oarsmen from Honaunau literally paddled away with Hawaii's classic annual outrigger canoe regatta, winning every event in which they were entered, achieving thereby a record unprecedented in the annals of modern Hawaiian racing and bettering their own feat of a year ago, in which they won six events in the regatta at Kona.

Seven times the spectators on

(Continued from Page 1)