

Volleyball League Opening on Sunday

The Outrigger Canoe club will open a volleyball league for its members tomorrow.

There are eight teams in the league and the first game is scheduled to get under way at 10. After the volleyball series is played it is planned to run intra-club series in other sports.

Outrigger canoe sailing is one of the sports to be revived. G. D. (Dad) Center has equipped one of his canoes with sails and it is planned to teach the youngsters how to handle the canoe. Tom Kiakona has been named instructor.
