

Duke Elected Volley Skipper

Duke Kahanamoku was unanimously elected captain of the Rotary volleyball team to participate in the business men's single series volleyball tournament to be held at the Central YMCA, beginning March 3rd., at a luncheon at the Central "Y" yesterday.

The tournament is entirely an invitational affair according to A. A. Kempa, physical director of the Central Y. These clubs have been invited to take part: Rotary, the Lions, the Outrigger Canoe Club, the Cen-

The Braves counted first in the opening inning. In the third, Graham's homer scored Longacre from second for the other two tallies.

Ramon Oncinlan, Filipino outfielder, was knocked out when he crashed into the centerfield fence chasing Graham's long hit homer.

The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Braves	3	6	2
All-Stars	0	5	2

M. Rodriguez and Souza; Nelson, Navarro and Villalon.

tral and Nuuanu YMCA's and others of Honolulu's representative organizations.

The committee for the tournament are, R. N. Benny, Paul Macneil and George Kellerman.