

Kakaakos, Outriggers and Matsons Win Slamfests

Three fast and exciting games were played last night at the KRC gym in the Four Men Volleyball league before a large gathering.

Kakaako MIA, Outrigger Srs. and Matson AC won their games, as expected.

In the first game the Mormons eliminated the Outrigger Jrs. 15-3 and 15-7. Albert Ramos, D. Akeo, G. Shodahl and G. Brown performed well for the winners, while P. Parker stood out for the losers.

E. Tougher and G. Garr also played well.

The Outrigger Srs. eliminated the Kapahulu lads, 15-9 and 15-10.

J. Parker, H. Heen, L. Chiswick

and T. Kaikona slammed well for the winners. J. Mahoe and Clemens Young shone for the losers.

In the feature game the Matson AC met trouble before downing the Waikiki outfit.

In the first set the Matsons, led by C. Keliikipi, won by a series of hard slamming. In the second set L. Benjamin of the Waikikis began a series of powerful drives which won the set. In the third set the Matsons pulled through with L. Aku, P. Asuncion and J. Wong playing a headsup game. For the losers C. Naluai, J. Sabas and B. Meyers played well, blocking some of Keliikipi's famous slams.
