

KAKAAKOS AND DRAGONS WIN

The Kakaako M. I. A. and Swing Dragons defeated their rivals last night at the K. R. C. gym in the Junior four men volleyball league.

S. Shodal of the Kakaako MIA, gathering most of the points by his powerful slams, baffled the Outriggers by crossing the slams.

Albert Azevedo, B. Weir and D. Akeo also played well for the winners. Although the Beach boys lost, 15-7 and 15-11, to the MIA, W. Moore, R. Dolan and P. Parker held their own against the more experienced boys.

An upset was registered when the Swing Dragons classed as dark-horses defeated the highly Public Baths, 16-18, 15-7 and 15-10.

The Dragons stopped the heavy slams from all angles and besides kept repeating with their own slams which crossed the Bath boys. C. Boyd, W. Smillick and R. Punohu played a good game for the winners.

J. Chang and A. Keliikoa stood out for the losers. The Dragons showed good team work and besides good pick ups.
