The annual canoe regatta will be held this afternoon on the Ala Wai over a one-mile course, starting at 2:30. Five events are on the program and they will bring into competition paddlers from the Outrigger Canoe club and Hui Nalu.

Outrigger crews are coached by Dad Center and Hui Nalu by John D. Kaupiko, Sr.

The past month has seen crews of the two beach clubs in diligent training on the Waikiki waterway. Rival coaches said yesterday that their paddlers were all in top condition and primed to give their all.

The five events to be held are junior four, senior six, kid six (boys under 18), junior six and senior four.

All races will finish in front of the boat house near the street car bridge.

The program is to be sponsored by the Kamaaina Beachcombers' Hui.
