

Ka Moi's Crew Back By Ship

(By Radio to The Advertiser)

LAHAINA, Maui, Oct. 16 —

Acting on advices from the coast guard and weather bureau the crew of the outrigger Ka Moi has decided to return to Honolulu by the steamer Hawaii on Tuesday, instead of attempting to paddle the motor equipped craft back to Oahu.

Both channels will be too rough for the passage the crew, consisting of Sally Hale, Harry Robello, Tommy Kiakona and William (Chick) Daniels Jr. was advised. Last week the men negotiated the craft from Honolulu to Maui in time to attend the Valley Isle county fair.