

Extra Race on Sports Program

In addition to the regular weekly sports program next Sunday at Waikiki the first of the series of outrigger canoe sailing races for the Pualani Topping trophy will start at 10.

Entries totaling 10 or 12 canoes have been lined up and competitive interest is keen. According to the rules, all skippers must have the names of their crews registered with Sally Hale at the Waikiki beach patrol not later than Monday, February 27.

The sports program will include a canoe race from in front of the Royal Hawaiian hotel, out to the surf and back, and a surfboard paddling race for men over 35 years of age. The surfboard polo tilt will be between the Hui Nalu machine and the Queen's Surfers.
