

Consolation Race Sunday

Outrigger Canoe Captains Will Meet At Wai- kiki Today

The consolation outrigger sailing race for the James Shingle Cup will be held Sunday off Waikiki Beach starting at 10:00 a.m. This race is for the six canoes which failed to place in the final event of the Pualani Topping contest.

All skippers and crews of the six canoes and all judges are asked to meet with Sally Hale and Charles Amalu at the Waikiki Beach Patrol Headquarters today at 2:30 p.m. to discuss rules, agree on the proper course to sail, and to render decisions regarding some of the canoes which have enlarged their sail area and changed their crew members. At this meeting also there will be a drawing of lanes by the skippers, so all are urged to attend.
