

Consolation Event Today

Waikiki Will Be Scene Of Final Outrigger Sailing Race

The James Shingle Cup Race for outrigger sailing canoes is scheduled for 10 a.m. today. This race is for all the canoes which failed to place in the Pualani Topping trophy elimination races. The starter's gun will send them off from in front of the Outrigger Canoe Club at 10 a.m. and the following canoes will probably be on the starting line: The Hui Nalu entry, John D. Kaupiko's "Black Maria", Bob Topping and his "Ka Moi", John Ernstberg in his "Yoyo Special," Charlie Amalu in the "Keeaumoku", David Kahana-moku in the "Halekulani", and Harry Steiner in the "Steiner Bros. Special."

All of these canoes have been making trial runs during the past few days, and this race is expected to steal the show from the main eventers. The course will probably be over the old short course which will give the general public a good view of the race in its entirety. Starting from in front of the Outrigger Canoe club the run will be around a buoy at Castle's point, from there to a buoy off Popular Surf, and then back to Cunha's surf. From there the canoes will race for the beach again, going around on the sea side of the Life Guard tower. If there is a good wind blowing the race should not last longer than an hour, and with all the practice runs that have been made the past few days by the various entries, the race should be well worth watching.

Lone Wahine

Pualani Topping has been added to the crew of the "Ka Moi" canoe with Bob Topping, taking the place of John Ernstberg who will sail his own "Yoyo Special". She will be the only wahine crew member in any crew, and it is hoped that her presence in Bob's canoe will break the jinx which has followed him all along.