

Weather Forces Postponement of Outrigger Race

Uncertain weather forced postponement of the consolation outrigger canoe sailing race scheduled for yesterday morning at Waikiki beach. The race was designed for the six canoes that failed to place in the recent final event of the Pualani Topping series.

Sally Hale, of the Beach patrol, announced that the race would be held at a later date. Entries will be John D. Kaupiko's "Black Maria," Bob Topping's "Ka Moi," John Ernstberg's "Yo-yo Special," Charlie Amalu's "Keeaumoku," David Kahanamoku's "H a lekulani," and Harry Steiner's "Steiner Bros. Special."
