Thurston Would Have Independent Groups Joined, Systematized

A plan to combine the private Waikiki beach patrol and the Hui Nalu at Waikiki as a part of the Territorial Beach patrol was taken under consideration by the Territorial harbor board after it had been advanced at the board meeting by Lorrin P. Thurston, president and general manager of The Advertiser.

At the motion of Louis Cain, chairman, the board voted to discuss the plan at the next board meeting July 18, with interested parties being invited to state their views.

Mr. Thurston, surfing and outrigger canoe enthusiast and offi-
