

Outrigger Club O.K.'s Bonds

inal ideals, the Outrigger Canoe club will greatly increase its facilities so that it may embark on a new and successful era. "Rather than set the club up as an exclusive Waikiki business and make the dues high," said Waiter Macfarlane, president of the club, "we will try to keep dues modest on the basis of a big membership."

Non Residents In

Non-residents will find membership made available to them so that they may find added enjoyment in congenial atmosphere and pleasant surroundings.

Erection of the new clubhouse will be upon the present Uluniu club site. The Uluniu club will be given space between the Outrigger and the Royal Hawaiian hotel.

Unanimous approval was also accorded amendments to the charter and the adoption of by-laws.

Directors elected were Mr. Macfarlane, J. B. Mann, Sam Fuller, Dad Center and Duke Kahana-moku. Directors elected to represent the bondholders were Harrison R. Cooke, H. P. Faye, Leslie A. Hicks and T. G. Singlehurst.

Officers Elected

After the meeting the directors met and organized, electing the following officers:

Mr. Macfarlane, president; Mr. Cooke, vice president; and Mr. Singlehurst, secretary and treasurer.

Leslie A. Hicks was elected chairman of the finance committee and Mr. Faye and Mr. Macfarlane members of the committee. J. B. Mann was elected chairman of the building and grounds committee.
