

Outrigger Club Forms Teams For Bond Sale

The campaign of the Outrigger Canoe club to sell a $90,000 bond issue for the complete rehabilitation of the club property at Waikiki gained fresh impetus yesterday when Walter Macfarlane, president, met with the first of five new teams at the chamber of commerce.

The teams have been formed from 26 new members of the Outrigger Club, Mr. Macfarlane said, who are enthusiastic about the Club plans and eager to help realize them. The new members, all of them well known in Honolulu, are supplementing the work of the regular campaign committee, appointed several weeks ago.

125 New Members

At yesterday's meeting with Team No. 1, Mr. Macfarlane revealed that since the new bonds were first offered to the public more than 125 new members have been signed up, and half of the money needed for the clubhouse and locker room building is already in sight.

The Outrigger club will begin spending more than $100,000 on the new structures probably before the first of the year, Mr. Macfarlane said. When they are completed, Waikiki will have the most modern club in Honolulu. Through a completely revised list of membership classes, the facilities of the club will be made available to virtually everybody in Hawaii and to hundreds of visitors.

The Teams

Team 1: Otto Ludwig, Bill Harrington, Freeman Lang, Porter Dickinson, Charlie Nolan and G. B. Richardson.

Team 2: George Armitage, Mr. Minto, Al Hastings, Bill Forrestel, Milt Holst and Ken Carney.

Team 3: Red McQueen, Roy Turner, Web Edwards, Roy Johnston and Sam Van Culin.

Team 4: Rev. Henry P. Judd, Leslie Hicks, Charles Shipp and Earl Vida.

Team 1 met yesterday with Mr. Macfarlane. Team 2 will meet with him today, with the others following this week in order.
