

Meeting Is Called On Outrigger Plans

Heads of Honolulu business and civic organizations have accepted an invitation to meet Friday at 3 p. m. with officials of the Outrigger Canoe club to hear a discussion of the club's plans for reorganization and expansion.

Plans for a new building to be financed through a $90,000 bond issue will be detailed by Walter Macfarlane, president. The meeting will be held at the Honolulu Chamber of Commerce.