

Club Makes Appeal—A final appeal has been made by officers of the Outrigger Canoe club for sufficient money to finance reconstruction of the well known Waikiki club. The club is still short $52,500, Walter Macfarlane, president, reported Thursday. Members of the club will spend the next three weeks canvassing friends for both memberships and assistance in floating the bonds.