

Work To Start Next Week On OCC Clubhouse

Ground is expected to be broken about the middle of next week for the new $75,000 clubhouse of the Outrigger Canoe club at Waikiki, Rep. Walter J. Macfarlane, president, announced today.

Ralph W. Woolley, contractor, has been awarded the construction contract, which was signed Saturday in the offices of C. W. Dickey, architect.

Effective today, the club's initiation fees have been raised from $10 to $25. Leslie Hicks, chairman of the finance committee, has announced that the club membership now exceeds 800. The membership list will be closed at 1,000, after which persons wishing to join must be placed on a waiting list.

In addition to President Macfarlane, OCC officers are: Harrison Cooke, vice president; T. G. Singlehurst, secretary-treasurer; Peter Faye, Duke Kahanamoku, George (Dad) Center, Samuel Fuller, Harold Mountain, Leslie Hicks and James B. Mann, directors.

Young, Lamberton & Pearson are auditors, and W. J. (Pat) Flannigan is manager. Lewis E. Haehlen is assistant manager and director of junior division activities.
