

Swimming officials and old-time swimmers in Japan have not forgotten "Dad" Center of Honolulu, former coach of the Out-rigger Canoe club and Punahou Academy swimming teams. When Dr. K. Kometani was in Japan recently, quite a few swimming officials asked him how Center was faring and expressed the hope that he is in the best of health. They have plenty of Aloha for him. Takaishi was particularly interested to hear about Center. Dr. Kometani met him in Osaka. Center helped the Japanese swimmers and coaches no little when they first started taking swimming seriously fifteen years ago. Japan swimming officials also asked to be remembered to David L. (Poupou) Conkling, City-County treasurer, who was an official of the Hui Makani in the good old days...
